

Beata Jarosz

A graduate of the Warsaw School of Economics (WSE) and Mini MBA Managerial Studies at the University of Łódź.

At present, she is the founder and CEO of Future Collars College with an innovative platform for learning programming and digital competence. In 2020 Koźminski Business Hub recognized the company as one of the Positive Impact Startups. In 2022, she was granted a distinction and added to the Forbes' Poland 100 Most Powerful Women List in the Business/Economics area.

A capital market expert with over 25 years of professional experience, former Vice-President of the Giełda Papierów Wartościowych w Warszawie S.A. (Warsaw Stock Exchange) (2006-2014). Co-founder of the stock market within the NewConnect alternative trading system and the Catalyt organized trading market of debt securities.

She previously worked at the Securities Commission (1991-2006). In the position of Director of the Market Supervision Department she was responsible for monitoring stock exchange trading.

She passed the state examination for candidates for the supervisory board member positions in State Treasury-owned companies. She was the Chairperson of the Supervisory Board of the Krajowy Depozyt Papierów Wartościowych S.A. (National Depository for Securities S.A.) and KDPW CCP S.A. (Clearing House of the National Depository for Securities).

In 2002-2010, she was a lecturer on capital markets at the Faculty of Economics of the University of Warsaw.

She has been awarded the Gold Cross of Merit for her special contribution to the Polish capital market development.

Since 2021 she has been a member of the Supervisory Board of ERBUD S.A.