

Janusz Reiter

Served as a Polish ambassador to the Federal Republic of Germany (1990-95) and to USA (2005-2007), he founded the Centre for International Relations (CIR), an independent thinktank, focused on foreign and security policies, in 2008 – 2011 a Special Emissary dealing with climate changes.

He is an author and coauthor of many books and magazine publications. He published in “Frankfurter Allgemeine Zeitung”, “Weltwoche”, “Washington Post”, and several Polish journals and magazines.

He received many awards and prizes including but not limited to Order of Merit of the Federal Republic of Germany, the Viadrina European University award and an honorary title of the College of the Atlantic in the USA.

Since 2016, he has served on the Supervisory Board and the Audit Committee of ERBUD S.A. as an independent member.

He also currently sits on the Supervisory Boards of the following companies : Solaris Bus & Coach sp.z o. o. and STU Ergo Hestia.