ERBUD will build the Centre for Research and Conservation of Cultural Heritage at the Faculty of Fine Arts of the Nicolaus Copernicus University in Toruń

ERBUD S.A. signed a contract for the construction of a new science facility at the Faculty of Fine Arts of the Nicolaus Copernicus University in Toruń. The contract value amounts to PLN 25.48 million.

The Design-Build-Contract includes the erection as general contractor of the Centre for Research and Conservation of Cultural Heritage at the Faculty of Fine Arts of the Nicolaus Copernicus University in Toruń. The aim of the facility is to enable young researchers to analyse historical buildings using the latest technologies.

The three-storey building will be erected next to the Faculty of Fine Arts, between Broniewskiego and Sienkiewicza Streets. The façade will be made of concrete, glass, copper and sheet metal, to match the historic style of the neighbouring buildings. The completion date is set for March 2021.
